

News from Murphy Warehouse Company 11-1-07

All of us at Murphy Warehouse Company are pleased to announce that Richard Murphy, president and chief executive officer, has been elected Chair of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals' (CSCMP) 2007- 2008 Board of Directors.

Founded in 1963, the CSCMP is the pre-eminent association for individuals involved in supply chain management. The organization provides educational, career development, and networking opportunities to more than 9,000 members worldwide

Did you know? Richard Murphy fast facts:

Fourth generation Murphy family leader since 1904.

Recipient, William K. Smith Distinguished Service Award by the University of Minnesota Center for Transportation Studies (CTS).

Current Chair , Executive Committee for CTS at the University of Minnesota.

Past board member, International Warehouse Logistics Association (IWLA). Represented the warehouse industry as a member of the OSHA Small Business Panel in 1999, including testifying before Congress.